Short title.

1. This Decree shall be cited as the Equality, Reconciliation and Unity of Zanzibar Peoples Decree, 1964.

Objective of the Zanzibar Peoples Revolution.

2. A primary objective of the Zanzibar Peoples Revolution is to end all economic, social or legal privileges and disabilities which have in the past divided various citizens and groups of citizens according to their race, sex, religion or origin, and to promote the equality, reconciliation and unity of the people of Zanzibar.

Equality among citizens.

3. Accordingly, every citizen of Zanzibar is declared to be equally entitled to the rights, privileges and protections of citizenship insofar as he or she equally assumes the duties and obligations of citizenship. No such rights, privileges or protections may lawfully be withdrawn from any citizen by instrumentalities of the State or by private action for reasons only primarily or in part, of that Citizen's race, religion, sex or origin.

Relief or preference in certain cases.

4. Nothing in this Decree shall preclude the Government's legislating to give special relief or other preference to economically, culturally or socially under-privileged categories of citizens for purposes of bringing them to equality with other comparable categories.
